ORLANDO, Fla. July 22, 2023 - Continuing with its extensive range of non-stop connectivity to Latin America, Avianca has announced the launch of a new international operation before the end of the year. This concerns the Orlando-Quito route that will commence on October 29th, 2023, becoming the best option for travelers who want to reach "the middle of the world."

The airline will operate two flights per week on Airbus A320 aircraft, with an offering of almost 3000 available seats to enjoy the incredible tourism offerings of the Ecuadorian capital. The flight schedule is:

| Flight | Route         | Departure | Arrival | Schedule            |
|--------|---------------|-----------|---------|---------------------|
| AV7399 | Orlando-Quito | 14:30     | 18:00   | Miércoles y Domingo |
| AV7398 | Quito-Orlando | 07:35     | 13:05   |                     |

"This new non-stop flight will provide customers in Orlando with a more comfortable travel experience to explore one of the most vibrant cities in South America. In Quito, not only will they find the famous monument at the middle of the world, where the equatorial line crosses, but travelers can also enjoy its beautiful old town with colonial architecture and a diverse range of gastronomic and entertainment options to live out their dream vacations. We are confident that whether for tourism or family trips, all travelers will find the best option to travel on Avianca," stated Rolando Damas, Director of Sales for Avianca in North America, Central America, and the Caribbean.

To travel from Orlando, the airline offers the best prices starting from $87 per one-way trip. Additionally, customers can fly from other cities in the United States such as Los Angeles, starting from $83 per one-way trip; New York, from $44; Miami, from $53; and other cities that can be checked in the offers section of the Avianca website.

Tickets for the new route are already available for purchase on the MY App Avianca, avianca.com, physical sales points, and through travel agencies.
